

The Examined Life:
The World of Great Ideas

Community Conversations
Free Lecture Series

Fall, 2009

Thursdays, Noon–1 p.m.

Wollenberg Auditorium, RCA

lowercolumbia.edu/conversations

Lower Columbia College faculty and community members discuss ideas that changed the world:

- 9/24 Dennis Shaw, Ph.D. That Mystery of Mysteries: Darwin's Search for the Origin of Species
- 10/1 Richard Kelley, S.T.L. Philosophy: I Think, Therefore I Am Uncertain
- 10/8 James Franz, M.A. Economic Systems: Isms vs. Isms
- 10/15 Courtney Shah, Ph.D. Democracy: Power to the People
- 10/22 Judge Stephen J. Warning ... The American Criminal Justice System: Crime and Punishment
- 10/29 John Crook, Architect Architecture and a Sense of Place
- 11/5 Carol Pahlke, Ph.D. The Evolution of Psychology
- 11/12 Peteris Livins, Ph.D. Einstein's Space and Time: Reexamining the Obvious
- 11/19 Hazar Jaber The World of Islam
- 12/3 Jeff Lucas, M.A. Math: Descartes' Other Contributions

If you would like to earn 1 Humanities credit for attending the lectures and writing a short paper on each, enroll in HUMN 106 with Jerry Zimmerman.

Schedule subject to change. Get updates at 360.442.2311 or lowercolumbia.edu/conversations

