Lower Columbia College, Home School, and

Consortium, Host School

Summer 2023 Fall 2023 Winter 2024 Spring 2024

Consortium Guidelines: The Home and Host School can enter into a consortium agreement whereby students enrolled at, and admitted as degree or certificate seeking students at Lower Columbia College (LCC) may be approved funding for credits taken at the Host Institution. All consortium credits must be applicable to the degree or certificate being pursued at LCC. This consortium agreement must be initiated at the beginning of the quarter and cannot be used retroactively.

You must enroll in a minimum of three (3) credits at LCC that count toward your declared academic program at LCC. You are responsible for having credits attempted/completed at the Host School transferred to LCC. Credits transferred will count toward the degree or certificate in the same manner as any other credits received through LCC. All credits taken at the host institution will fall under LCC's financial aid satisfactory academic progress standards for federal and/or state aid. Quarterly, cumulative, and college level grade point averages of transfer credits are not factored into the LCC transcript. Future quarters of student aid will not be disbursed until grades are received.

It is agreed by the undersigned that financial aid will be awarded by the Home Institution, taking into consideration concurrent enrollment at both institutions to determine the amount of financial aid to be disbursed. It is the student's responsibility to pay their tuition and fees at the Host School's in accordance with their requirements, as funds will not be transferred between schools. With respect to financial aid awards, this agreement specifically concerns the following student:
