GIVING THANKS FOR STUDENT SUCCESS AND ACHIEVEMENT!

Fall is a wonderful season for Lower Columbia College, as it marks the beginning of another academic year for students, staff and faculty! Right now, the LCC campus is bustling with activity and we have a lot to be excited about, such as beautiful academic and sports facilities, supportive and innovative faculty and staff, and all those bright futures waiting to be unlocked by the gift of higher education in our students.

This is also a great time for us to celebrate and give thanks to our community for all the support they give to our students to help them be successful. This year, we awarded $287,000 in scholarships to deserving students, some of whom would not be able to go to college without this support. Each scholarship is both a gift and an investment in the life of a bright future. Tonight, we are honored to facilitate the opportunity for donors and students to be together to give thanks and share personal stories.

Every scholarship has a story. Not only the story of its creation, which may be in honor of a loved one or a special program that changed someone's life, but also the story of its future, which is still to be written in the lives of the very students who are honored to receive it.

Tonight, we give thanks to our community members for the investment you've made in the life of the students you will meet, and give thanks for the important part you will play in their story and future success.

And we give thanks to our students, who are working hard every day to achieve their higher education dreams! We wish you all the best and know you'll remember this time in your life in the future. And maybe someday, you will also be able to help make another student's dreams come true.

Happy Season of Thanksgiving!
