

Author
PJ Peterson
Wednesday,
April 24,
2019

Workshop, 3:30-5 p.m. in Main, Room 147
Reading, Longview Public Library from 7-8 p.m.

Writing her first novel was only the first step in becoming an author, as it wasn't until the actual publication of Blind Fish Don't Talk that the real thrill began. PJ has had great success locally, perhaps because she is so well-known in the community. She is thrilled that readers report that they genuinely like her novel. She is optimistic that greater readership is down the road, once she releases it through another venue. "It unwinds like a movie" has been a recurrent thread as reported back to her. Maybe that will happen in the future!

PJ is busy writing her second novel, with a working title of Rembrandt Rides a Bike. Dr. Julia Fairchild returns, with a few of her friends, in a fun romp along the Rhine River. She also enjoys writing short stories, especially for her great-nieces and -nephews. She tailors each story to the child, and always ends with a life lesson. Someday she will publish those stories for other children. Currently, she is plotting with the local Catholic School principal to produce a series of stories featuring local children, which will become the St. Rose School Series.

The public is invited to these free events.

Lower Columbia College provides equal opportunity in education and employment and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, perceived or actual physical or mental disability, pregnancy, genetic information, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, creed, religion, honorably discharged veteran or military status, or use of a trained guide dog or service animal. All Inquiries regarding compliance with access, equal opportunity and/or grievance procedures should be directed to Vice President of Foundation, HR & Legal Affairs, 1600 Maple Street, PO Box 3010, Longview, WA 98632, Phone number, 360.442.2120, Phone number/TTY 800.833.6388. Learn more at lowercolumbia.edu/aa-eo.

lowercolumbia.edu/northwest-voices

