Krysten Ralston was born in Mobile, Alabama into a military family and spent many of her formative years moving between states. When she was 10, the family settled in Washington state where she currently resides.

She has been a storyteller for as long as she can remember, and has been a writer since she could hold a pencil. She studied English with a focus in Creative Writing at Washington State University.

In addition to being a writer, Ralston is an artist, a coffee connoisseur, a nature lover, a wife and mother, and a dreamer.
