

Author Kristine Kibbee

*Wednesday,
December 3*

Whole in the Clouds tells a wonderful story that stresses the importance of positive self-image, the meaning of true friendship, and what it means to discover where you belong.

Audience: Community Members,
Elementary and Middle School Students

Reading, Longview Public Library from 3-4 p.m.

Kristine Kibbee is a Pacific Northwest native with a love of language, nature and animals. Kristine's passion for creative writing began in her early youth and led her to the doors of Washington State University, where she earned a degree in Humanities with a focus in Professional Writing. Kristine has since had works published in The Vancougar and The Salal Review Literary Review, S/Tick Literary Review and is a featured columnist for the nationally syndicated magazine, Just Frenchies.

Kristine makes her home deep on the heart of a forest on the outskirts of Longview, WA. Over the years she has been involved in her local community by way of dog rescue, Animal Assisted Therapy and promotion of the creative arts.

Kristine's novella The Mischievous Misadventures of Dewey the Daring is available on Amazon.com and she anticipates following the release of her fantasy novel Whole in the Clouds with the comedic collection of dog stories, Frenchie 'Tails' – which are short, cheeky and ripe with mischief!

The public is invited to these free events.

It is the policy of Lower Columbia College to provide equal opportunity in all facets of education, hiring and continued employment, regardless of sex, race, marital status, creed, color, age, national origin, sexual orientation, the presence of any sensory, mental or physical disability, Vietnam era or disabled veteran status, or religious preference.

lowercolumbia.edu/activities-services/arts-entertainment/northwest-voices

