Following his Honorable Discharge from the Marine Corps in 1969, Nutting spent two years trying to find himself, resulting from what is now known as PTSD. Nutting overcame war-induced troubles, through further education, a marriage, raising three children, and become a business owner. Then he returned to his earlier love of writing and discovered letters he wrote home during his Vietnam tour. Being a natural storyteller, fortified with evidence from these letters, Nutting was able to compose this book with eloquence seldom displayed by most writers. His book, The Court Martial of Corporal Nutting, was published in October 2014.

The public is invited to these free events.
