

Northwest Voices Presents:

Author: Ken Scholes

Monday, April 19

3-4:30 p.m. Writing Workshop in Room 119, Main Building, LCC campus

7 p.m. Author Reading, Longview Public Library Auditorium

Story is everywhere. Over the course of this 90 minute workshop with local author and former Longview resident Ken Scholes, participants will have the opportunity to learn about his writing process and career path while at the same time getting hands-on experience generating story ideas from found objects, random words and keeping an eye out for stories buried in every day life.

Scholes is a winner of the Writers of the Future Contest and his first novel, Lamentation, is a winner of the RUSA Reading List Award for Best Fantasy of 2009. His short story collection, Long Walks, Last Flights and Other Strange Journeys, was a finalist for the 2008 Endeavour Award.

All events are free and open to the public.

Northwest Voices is funded by the Longview Public Library and Lower Columbia College, Friends of the LPL, LPL Foundation, LCC Foundation, and Associated Students of LCC.

Lower Columbia College is an Equal Opportunity institution.
