Kim Stafford Reading, William Stafford Birthday Celebration
7:00–8:15 p.m. at Longview Public Library

Kim Stafford is the founding director of the Northwest Writing Institute at Lewis & Clark College, and the author of a dozen books of poetry and prose, including The Muses Among Us: Eloquent Listening and Other Pleasures of the Writer's Craft, and Early Morning: Remembering My Father, William Stafford. He is the literary executor for the Estate of William Stafford and teaches often at the Sitka Center for Art & Ecology and the Fishtrap Gathering.

At the evening event, Joe Green will show his and Marquita Green's prize-winning 2010 broadside of Meditation by William Stafford, and discuss broadsides in general. During a short open mike, community members may read poems by William Stafford, other authors, or themselves.

The evening will conclude with birthday cake.

All events are free and open to the public.
