Gina Osborn, Director

Gina Osborn is a Native of New Mexico, where she earned both her B.A. and M.M. in Vocal Music. She previously taught at Western New Mexico University and New Mexico State University, as well as maintained a private voice studio in New Mexico, New York and Oregon.

In addition to teaching, Ms. Osborn has also had an extensive performance career that has taken her around the world, singing operatic roles and concerts in England, Italy, Germany and New York City.

Currently Ms. Osborn resides in Portland, OR, where she sings with 2 professional choirs as well as her own jazz band.

As a singer, Gina understands the importance of expressing oneself musically in an accepting space. As a teacher, she strives to create an environment where singers can express, explore and develop their passion for music. She is thrilled to be the newest addition to LCC's Music Program and envisions tremendous growth and success for the choirs in the upcoming years.

Accompanist Jill Leach

Jill Leach has been performing since she was a teenager. She has accompanied instrumentalists, vocalists, choirs and musical theatre for 40 years. She has performed throughout the U.S., Canada, and Mexico. Currently, she accompanies the choral groups at LCC, and in the Kelso, Kalama and Woodland School Districts; as well as a Christian-based senior adult choir called the JOY Singers.

For Jill, music has always been a confidence-builder and a means of expressing herself and her faith in God. As an accompanist, Jill also enjoys supporting and encouraging students to find their own confidence and expression.
