

Kurt Harbaugh

Kurt Harbaugh, director of the LCC Jazz Ensemble and acting director of the LCC Symphonic Band, was raised in Kalama, where he began his musical studies at a very early age. He received his Bachelor of Arts in Music from Central Washington University in 1991. Since then he has worked in the music retail business, taught private music lessons and performed professionally throughout the local area.

Kurt is currently an adjunct faculty member at Lower Columbia College, teaching Music Fundamentals, Group Piano, Jazz Band, Music Appreciation, American Music (on-line) and Percussion Ensemble. He also teaches K-8 music at Longview-Kelso Adventist School and is a substitute teacher for the Kelso School District.

He is Principal Percussionist with the Southwest Washington Symphony, Timpanist with the Columbia River Chamber Orchestra, Drummer for the Northwest Jazz Orchestra, and Percussionist for the Northwest Wind Ensemble and LCC Symphonic Band. Harbaugh was the bandleader for Cabaret 2004 and plays in several other groups performing Jazz, Rock, Blues, Bluegrass, Country and Reggae. He has also been a Co-Conductor for the Southwest Washington Youth Symphony and two Summer Orchestra camps. He has also appeared on several local recordings.

Contributions in support of the LCC Jazz Ensemble and LCC's Rose Center for the Arts are welcome, and enhance our community's musical life.
