

Associate in Applied Science (AAS)

Criminal Justice

Modern law enforcement is a highly competitive career field. The more education you have, the better your chance of employment and advancement. Prepare for entry-level employment in law enforcement agencies and in some correctional facilities with an Associate in Applied Science degree in Criminal Justice. People working within those areas can use the program to enhance their skills.

For a roadmap that identifies the preferred sequencing of courses and other specific recommendations from faculty, please see the corresponding program map(s):

Notes

Revised May 2023 (effective Summer 2023)

Program planning is based on information available at the time of preparation. It is the student's responsibility to meet with their LCC advisor for specific requirements. Consult the LCC catalog for LCC graduation requirements.

The necessity for prerequisite classes or beginning classes in a quarter other than Fall will change this plan and may extend beyond two years.
