Placement

Students who plan to earn a degree or certificate or transfer to a baccalaureate institution must go through a placement process before enrolling. LCC uses multiple measures to determine course placement. Results and course recommendations are typically provided immediately upon completion of the placement evaluation. Advisors use these placement results and course recommendations to help students plan their class schedules.

Placement recommendations must be followed, although a student may re-test once if a placement assessment is used for course placement. Additional measures used for placement include completed college courses, high school transcript GPA, Smarter Balanced Assessment, High School Transfer Agreements (HSTA), GED, SAT, Transitional Studies course completion, or English Directed Self Placement. Registration

New students register for classes when meeting with their advisor after completing New Student Orientation. In future quarters, students can register online after meeting with their program advisor.

Registration dates and deadlines are available online at lowercolumbia.edu/enrollment. Registration at LCC is prioritized so that degree-and certificate-seeking students nearest to graduation who have met with their faculty advisors, register before newer students. Students should discuss alternative classes with their advisors since some of the classes may fill before their registration time.

To access records and to conduct other business online, students must access the ctcLink system at ptprd.ctclink.us/psp/ptprd using their ctcLink ID number and a password. Students receive instructions on setting up a ctcLink account in their welcome letter. This information is provided by the Registration Office after processing the student's application for admission.

Currently enrolled students will meet with their program advisor prior to registering each quarter. After meeting with each student, advisors remove the quarterly advising hold allowing the student to register online through ctcLink.

Students placed in the incorrect English, Human Development, Mathematics and Physical Education classes are allowed to make changes through the tenth day of instruction.

- After the third day, and before the published deadline, with instructor permission by contacting the Registration Office.

Dropping a class:

- Online through the published deadline, according to the withdrawal policy below. NOTE: dropping a class can change financial aid eligibility and/or result in a W grade.

Withdrawing from Classes

Students may withdraw from some or all of their classes through Friday of the eighth week of the quarter. If the class ends before the end of the quarter, a student may withdraw through the last day of class. If a student stops attending a class without officially withdrawing, he or she will remain on the roster and receive a grade accordingly.

To officially withdraw, a student must obtain a withdrawal form from the Registration Office, consult with the instructor if possible, consult with the Financial Aid office if receiving aid, and return the completed form to the Registration Office.

Students who complete the withdrawal procedure after the 10th day of classes will receive a grade of W (“withdrawal”) for the course. Students suspected of academic dishonesty may not withdraw from a course to avoid consequences resulting from academic dishonesty until there is a resolution through the student conduct process.

Students who don’t attend any classes during the first five instructional days of the quarter, or contact the instructor, may be withdrawn from the class(es).

Students are responsible for understanding the impact of withdrawing on their financial aid. Students are encouraged to review the Financial Aid Handbook at lowercolumbia.edu/financial-aid or visit the Financial Aid office for information.

Financial Aid

How can financial aid be used?

Financial aid can be used to pay tuition and fees as well as other expenses such as books, supplies, housing, transportation, and other living expenses.

Who is eligible for financial aid?

There are state and federal sources of financial aid. If you are a U.S. Citizen or Permanent Resident of the U.S., you can apply for federal and state financial aid using the FAFSA. If you are ineligible for federal financial aid due to immigration status, you can apply for state financial aid using the WASFA. More information is available about the financial aid application process at lowercolumbia.edu/financial-aid.

What types financial aid are available?

Grants

Grants are need-based aid and generally do not have to be repaid. They include: Federal Pell Grant, Federal Supplemental Education Opportunity Grant (FSEOG), Washington College Grant, College Bound Scholarship, Passport to College, Early Achievers Grant, and Opportunity Grant. Other grant resources include Worker Retraining, Basic Food Employment Training (BFET), and emergency assistance.

Work-Study Employment

Students can request a work-study job as part of their Financial Aid package. LCC staff will help students determine their eligibility. Students may work on or off campus for up to 19 hours a week while attending school. LCC participates in both the federal and state work-study programs. A limited number of student help jobs are also available.

Loans

LCC offers Federal Direct Loans and parent (PLUS) loans up to the cost of attendance. The maximum loan amount awarded depends on student need, dependent status, and year in college. Students must complete loan counseling and a master promissory note. PLUS applicants use a separate loan application.

Scholarships

LCC's online scholarship application system allows students to apply for multiple scholarships with a single application. Award amounts vary. Scholarship applications are typically available during spring quarter for the upcoming academic year.

Veterans

Resident veterans who served in a combat zone or who provided direct support to American soldiers in a combat zone may qualify for special tuition rates and other financial aid. Assistance with completing the process to apply for college funds, veteran's health benefits and other help is provided by the Veterans' Affairs Coordinator's office. To get started, veterans need Copy #4 of their DD Form 214, Report of Separation from Active Service.

How to learn more about the different types of aid available

Learn more about different sources of funding at lowercolumbia.edu/types-of-aid.

How to apply for financial aid

Students apply for financial aid online through the LCC website at lowercolumbia.edu/financial-aid. Computers are available for student use in the Admissions Center. Priority deadlines are set for each quarter to allow 3-6 weeks for an application to be processed. Priority dates are published at lowercolumbia.edu/financial-aid.

How to know if financial aid is awarded

Students will be notified of any financial aid awards through ctcLink. In ctcLink, students can view and update their financial aid awards by going to the 'Student Center' and selecting "View Financial Aid."

If a student applies for financial aid and registers for classes, it is assumed they are accepting the financial aid award. Students who decide not to attend LCC must notify Financial Aid to cancel their award by Friday of the first week of classes.

The student should also review information about class changes or academic progress that might affect the award.

Maintaining financial aid eligibility

To continue receiving financial aid, students must meet the Satisfactory Academic Progress standards established by the applicable state and federal financial aid programs. Students who fail to meet these standards may be placed on financial aid warning or lose their financial aid. Students can review Satisfactory Academic Progress standards online at lowercolumbia.edu/financial/aid.
