Faculty members persist in being positive forces of change in student’s lives and continue to be mindful of the growing mental health crisis affecting the world, but particularly, today’s youth. The LCCFAHE encourages everyone to vote this election season. Stay safe, Brad Benjamin, LCCFAHE President.”
- 5D. WFSE Report – WFSE president Tracy Stanley submitted a written report that was read by President Chris Bailey. The report read as follows. “Good Evening LCC Trustees. Unfortunately, once again I am double booked this evening. I am happy to say our contract negotiations went extremely well and were quite effective and efficient in the new environment of negotiating via Zoom meetings. We came to a tentative agreement September 24, 2020 and our WFSE Community College Coalition members ratified the agreement September 29, 2020. Classified staff continue to be very busy, both on campus and off. The staff continue to adapt and flourish in our current environment by continuing to provide excellent service to our students, faculty staff and community. Virtual meetings have become normal and we continue to be productive whether we are on campus or not. Our staff are all used to working with technology; however, many processes such as virtual meetings, digital signatures, scanning and uploading files are not tasks all of our staff do on a regular basis. Staff have stepped up and continue to develop skills in areas many of us had not needed to be versed in prior to the pandemic. I applaud everyone for their determination and hard work in our current work environment. I also applaud all of those staff that continue to come to campus to fulfill the duties of their jobs so others are able to be safe, whether they come to campus or work from home. They put not only themselves at risk, but their families as well so others may remain safe. Have a wonderful evening and stay safe! Tracy Stanley, WFSE Chief Steward, President, WFSE Local 1400, Council Secretary, WFSE/AFSCME Council 28.”
